JULIETTE LOW SEMINAR 2015

The Juliette Low Seminar (JLS)

is the WAGGGS' flagship leadership development programme for young women that has been running and growing since 1932. It provides wonderful opportunities for young women to develop their leadership skills in a creative and supportive environment. This is a great way to learn and share experiences with other young women in a cross cultural context. We know that many young women are looking for spaces where they can interact with peers from around the world, broaden horizons as well develop leadership skills which will prepare them for national and international responsibilities. The JLS is that space and it offers a week of personal development, challenge and fun. The JLS is one of our most popular seminars, so apply early before the event fills up.
